Congressman Xavier Becerra ... FIGHTING FOR YOU

Dear Friends:

For ten years now, I have been honored to serve you as your representative in Congress. That time spent in Washington D.C. and back home in our neighborhoods has been both a privilege and a challenge. Together, you and I have faced some real battles – budget deficits, terrorism, attacks on immigrants. But in the end, we have never lost sight of what we're working to achieve ... of what's important.

As we begin a new year and a new Congressional session, I am ready once again to work with you and for you to protect Social Security from those who would "privatize" it; to create more jobs with better pay; to bring our fair share of federal dollars to our schools; and to make our communities safe from gangs and terrorists.

No one said these battles would be easy, but nothing worth fighting for ever is.

And so, the fight must continue. I can assure you that I will never tire. I will never give up. And I will never forget whom I am fighting for – for you and your children, and indeed, for every hard working family in Los Angeles.

Sincerely,
